

Northwest A&F University Chinese Government Scholarship 2025

Founded in 1934, Northwest A&F University (NWAUFU) is a prestigious national university under the administration of Ministry of Education of China. As a key university supported by the Ministry's "Project 985" and "Project 211", it is also one of the select universities designated for the National "World-Class University and First-Class Discipline" Project. Today, NWAUFU is recognized as one of China's leading agricultural universities, offering the most comprehensive range of agricultural, forestry and water-related disciplines.

NWAUFU comprises 28 colleges and departments, with 14 disciplines including Agricultural Science, Plant and Animal Science, Engineering, Environmental Science and Ecology, Chemistry, Biology and Biochemistry, Pharmacology and Toxicology, Molecular Biology and Genetics, Microbiology, Geoscience, Computer Science, Clinical Medicine, Social Science, and Materials Science. These disciplines are ranked among the top 1% in the world according to the Essential Science Indicators (ESI). In particular, Agricultural Science, Plant and Animal Science, Environmental Science and Ecology are ranked in the top 1‰ worldwide, with Agricultural Science placed in the top 0.1‰.

Through active participation in the Belt and Road Initiative, NWAUFU has emerged as a hub for international agricultural exchanges and cooperation, contributing significantly to the development of the Silk Road Economic Belt. NWAUFU leads the Silk-Road Agricultural Education and Research Innovation Alliance, which has a profound global impact. NWAUFU also leads the way in establishing eight agricultural science and technology demonstration parks and four overseas talent training bases in countries along the silk road.

Currently, NWAUFU enrolls 22,920 undergraduate and 16,365 graduate students across a wide range of programs, including 3,741 doctoral students, 12,624 master's students and 428 international graduate students.
